

Sabrina K. Christian-Bennett

Sabrina K. Christian-Bennett currently serves on the Coleman Board of Trustees. She has been a member of the board since 2007 and serves on the Public Policy and Marketing Committee.

Sabrina first became familiar with Coleman by attending an Ambassador breakfast. She was very interested in Coleman and ways that she could get more involved to help serve others. She has served on the Right at Home and the Educator of the Year committee for the past 3 years.

Sabrina graduated from Kent State University in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. She is the President of Bennett Land Title Agency, LLC in Brimfield, Ohio and handles residential and commercial real estate transactions. (www.bennettlandtitle.com)

Sabrina currently lives in Rootstown, Ohio with her husband Richard and two children. In her spare time when she is not at work or with family she serves as a Director for Habitat for Humanity of Portage County and Vice President for the Brimfield Area Chamber of Commerce.
