

Tom Freeman

Tom Freeman is currently serving his second year on the Coleman Professional Services Board of Trustees. He previously served six years on the Coleman Foundation Board. Tom served 24 years in the social work field as executive director of several agencies.

His motivation is to see mental illness treated equally with other illnesses. This led Tom and his late wife, Mimi, to found the Freeman Endowment for the Uninsured at Coleman.

Tom is a former Portage County Commissioner, a former member of the Area Agency on Aging Board, and is presently a member of the Social Concerns Committee at St. Patrick's Church in Kent.

Tom is the father of nine children and has 26 grandchildren. He and his family enjoy mountain trekking, boating, and travel.
