

Jackie Peck

Jackie Peck joined the Board of Trustees for Coleman Professional Services in 2008. She serves on the Marketing and Public Policy Committee and the Right At Home Committee. Jackie became interested in Coleman through service with the 'Circle of Caring' in her local church, Kent United Church of Christ. This group works to increase congregational awareness of ways to welcome and support those with mental illness both within and beyond the church community. Members play bingo with residents at Abbott House each month and provide seasonal events for Coleman consumers.

Jackie directs the Center for Literacy in the College of Education at The University of Akron, where she also teaches graduate courses in literacy education. She earned her Ph.D. from Kent State University in 1995.

Jackie's interests include providing English language conversation practice with recent US residents from Asia, attending Cleveland Orchestra concerts and Cleveland Museum of Art exhibits, traveling, reading widely, flower gardening, and knitting!
