

Derrick A. Pledger, Ed.D, MBA

Derrick Pledger is a new member of the Coleman Board of Trustees and serves on the Committee for Continuous Development. He is the CEO of Advanced Concepts in Personal Development, Ltd.

As a board member, Derrick would like to ensure that special needs children with emotional and behavioral disorders are being served.

Derrick's company provides professional staff development to schools, businesses and institutions on leadership, diversity and organizational development. He is involved in AERA and NABSE.

Derrick has been married to Marcia Pledger for over 20 years and is an avid racquetball player, bowler and reader.