COLEMAN ADULT DAY SERVICES WELCOMES ATLAS REHAB AND WELLNESS SERVICES

RAVENNA, Ohio (December 2, 2008) – Coleman Adult Day Services, a service in Ravenna, which offers affordable daytime programs, designed for adults whose lives are challenged because of limited or diminishing physical, social or cognitive abilities, has recently welcomed ATLAS Rehab and Wellness Center into their facility to provide outpatient rehabilitation therapy services. ATLAS offers Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy and Speech Therapy. Their services not only help clients at Coleman Adult Day Services but, they are also open to the public.

“One of the benefits of having our facility located in Coleman Adult Day Services is the ability to talk directly with clients and assist them in day-to-day care. We are also able to give tips to Coleman staff on additional ways of how to physically handle patients,” said Theresa Dvorak PT, Facility Rehab Director.

“We are so pleased to have this unique opportunity to work together with ATLAS to expand upon the services we can offer our participants. They no longer need to travel to another site for their therapy services. This partnership has also proven to be a great convenience for our busy care-giving families as well, since they do not need to take time off from work to take their loved-one to therapy appointments.”

ATLAS Rehab and Wellness is committed to helping individuals overcome or adapt to their own unique personal challenges. ATLAS is dedicated to offering a variety of services to aid in the recovery of (but not limited to): orthopedic surgery (i.e. hip/knee replacement, rotator cuff, etc.), strokes, neuropathy, arthritis, speech/language disorders, pediatric delayed development, head injury, spinal cord injury, and degenerative diseases (i.e. Parkinson’s, MS, etc.). For more information on ATLAS Rehab and Wellness, contact Theresa Dvorak PT, Facility Rehab Director at 330-297-1026.
