KATHY MYERS JOINS COLEMAN PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

KENT, Ohio (April 20, 2009) – Coleman Professional Services is pleased to announce the employment of Mrs. Kathy Myers as its new Public Relations Executive. Mrs. Myers replaces Ms. Meghan Urbon who recently took the Executive Director position for Streetsboro Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Myers is a graduate of Stephens College in Business and Marketing and has been active in marketing, sales and accounting with their family business, Davey Kent, for more than 22 years. Kathy is very active in the Portage County community through Board and leadership positions with the Robinson Memorial Hospital Foundation, Kent Coterie IV and the Kent United Church of Christ.

Kathy Myers responsibilities include the promotion of Coleman Professional Services in five counties of Northeast Ohio, coordinating marketing information, supporting marketing of fundraising activities for the Coleman Foundation and leading the strategies to promote, advocate and educate the public about chronic mental illness, adult dementia and other disabling human conditions.

“I am looking forward to the opportunities I will have to represent Coleman Professional Services. This region is fortunate to have an institution like Coleman and I am honored to have the opportunity to work there,” Mrs. Myers said. Kathy Myers and her husband, Tom, have three grown children and live in Kent.

Coleman Professional Services is a nationally recognized not-for-profit provider of behavioral health and rehabilitation programs that improve the lives of individuals, families and businesses in Northeast Ohio. The company relies on an enterprise business model to diversify its funding. Coleman’s foundation and three enterprise companies produce more than 25 percent of the company’s funding for its award-winning programs.
