LANG SEEKS FUNDING FOR COLEMAN MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

KENT, Ohio (March 11, 2009) –Mary Lang was recently named the new Grant writer for Coleman Professional Services. Mary is the daughter of Dr. Walter Lang, the first pediatrician in the City of Kent. He supported many of the areas non-profit organizations that contributed to the well-being of society. Lang’s job duties will involve grant coordination and administration. “I chose Coleman because I believe in the mission of the organization. I am also impressed by the quality of work they do for the community and the way they operate their social entrepreneurship business model to diversify funding,” Lang said.

Mary’s family grew up in Kent. She is a professional educator with grant writing experience and early in her career she was a clinical speech and language pathologist. Working with this population provides a firm foundation for understanding type of people Coleman serve. She has a doctorate degree in education from Auburn University, Auburn, AL (Alabama). Mary has two children.

Coleman Professional Services is a nationally recognized not-for-profit provider of behavioral health and rehabilitation programs that improve the lives of individuals, families and businesses in Northeast Ohio. The company relies on an enterprise business model to diversify its funding. Coleman’s foundation and three enterprise companies produce more than 40 percent of the company’s funding for its award-winning programs.
