

Coleman Professional Services Named National Award Winner

Coleman Professional Services was named the recipient of the National Council for Community Behavioral Healthcare's Award of Excellence in the Community Provider category. The award was presented during the National Council's annual training conference April 3 2001 in Portland, Oregon. Pictured above are Tammy Weaver, Grant Specialist, and Nelson W. Burns, Chief Executive Officer of Coleman.