

HIRAM GRAD ON BOARD FOR NEW “AWARENESS CAMPAIGN”

May 29, 2007

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kent, Ohio-Recent graduate from Hiram College, Meghan Urbon, joins Coleman Professional Services to coordinate regional “Awareness Campaign Planning Group” on behalf of the Margaret Clark Morgan Foundation to educate the general community about critical facts and issues affecting mental illness in our country. It will be the first model in Ohio of a collaborative regional county approach.

Originally residing in Cuyahoga Falls, OH, Urbon arrives at Coleman from Hiram College earning her Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications. She was most recently the President of the Student Senate and formerly served as Secretary. Urbon was also very active on the soccer field as a two-year captain and four-year letter winner.

Serving as public relations intern, Urbon will be charged with gathering information and expertise toward the execution of a five county “Awareness Campaign.” She will also coordinate the planning committee, which will be responsible for writing recommendations to the Margaret Clark Morgan Foundation Board of Trustees regarding the vision, scope, budget, and timeline.

-MORE-

It will be critical to organize an effective anti-stigma campaign to cater to the needs of the target region and promote overall health and wellness. Through a unique and specialized approach in narrowing the scope to the surrounding communities, efforts can be strengthened to create a new model of advancing wellness and understanding of diversity among neighboring individuals.

Coleman Professional Services is a nationally recognized not-for-profit provider of behavioral health and rehabilitation programs that improve the lives of individuals, families, and businesses in Northeast Ohio. The company relies on an Enterprise Business Model to diversify its funding. Coleman's foundation and four enterprise companies produce more than 40 percent of the company's funding for its award-winning programs.

-END-