

Coleman Foundation is pleased to announce that Pam Fife is the new Coordinator of Annual Giving. Since 2000, Pam served as Director of Alumnae Relations at Hathaway Brown School in Shaker Heights. She brings a wealth of experience to Coleman in annual giving and event leadership including service at Western Reserve Girl Scout Council and Western Reserve Public Media (Channels 45 and 49). She has begun working on Coleman's annual Right At Home fundraiser, which will be held on September 12, 2009 at the home of Deborah Shorts.

She was a member of Kent Rotary and Kent United Church of Christ before moving to Atlanta in the late 1990s. After three years in Atlanta, followed by nine years working in Shaker Heights, Pam is excited to be back in Portage County, where she raised her now grown children, Stephanie Clemens Fleser and Jason Clemens. "I am happy to be working for such a great foundation. The support that Coleman Foundation gives to organizations providing services to children, families and older adults with mental health and rehabilitation challenges is inspiring," Pam said. She and her husband, Jim, live in Ravenna. The couple spends their free time biking, traveling in their motor home and enjoying their children and grandchildren.

Coleman Foundation supports Coleman Professional Services and other organizations that provide excellence in advocacy, leadership and education in mental health and rehabilitation services.
